This house is having another party tonight. I made police report and encouraged some of the neighbors to also make a police report. I think someone else had already called as the person answering my call said someone had already reported the house. I'm hoping to schedule our neighborhood meeting to discuss these houses after the holidays. Best, Daisy Marco

Hi there,

We have been affected by such events and vandalism as I witnessed our neighbor's car get keyed after the recent Halloween party was shut down by the police. Also, the 'party' house is currently spewing raw sewage on to the street on a daily basis as it appears the mainline is wide open and not functioning.

I suppose this is another phone call, or email.

PROTOCOL FOR PROBLEM PARTY HOUSES

Although there is an abundance of amazing caring residents in our community, there are these handful of people that can be referred to as "nuisance neighbors" that regularly have large late night noisy parties with guests whose parked cars block access to our already narrow streets and leave trash strewn about our neighborhood.

Deputy City Attorney Jackie Lawson, briefly discussed what currently can be done to try to stop this problem at last week's annual meeting. Her office along with the LAPD and Counsel Member Ryu's Office have developed a party house protocol to assist communities such as ours curb these incidents.

To help those unlucky enough to have such neighbors, she'd like to have a small neighborhood meeting discuss what can be done and identify those particular houses. Affected residents should reply to this email with their contact information so the meeting can be scheduled. Also, please let us know if you would be interested in hosting the meeting.

With the holiday party season upon us, we've attached the Party House Protocol in case you find yourself in this situation.

PROTOCOL FOR PROBLEM PARTY HOUSES

While there is no quick fix, following proper reporting protocol can help the LAPD and the neighborhood control and prevent future issues.

This will help the Prosecutor build strong cases against residents, promoters and property owners which can lead to a party house being closed down.

What You Can Do: REPORT! REPORT! REPORT!

- Report the arrival of the following immediately: Caterers, Valets and Party Rental Companies arrive on the scene late in the afternoon on the day of a party. Call 877- ASK- LAPD
- Email the Neighborhood Prosecutor before end of business day: Jacquelyn.Lawson@lacity.org
- Email Field Deputies to Councilmember David Ryu, Catherine Landers and Alice Roth: Catherine.Landers@lacity.org Alice.Roth@lacity.org

Once a party house is in full swing, there are still things that can be done.

- Call 877 - ASK - LAPD and make a report.
- If you choose not to report anonymously, ask LAPD to have the responding officer close the loop on your complaint by letting you know what actions were taken (were citations written at the scene?) once they arrive at/leave the scene.
- Follow up your complaints to LAPD with bullet pointed, detailed emails to:
 - Neighborhood Prosecutor Jacquelyn.Lawson@lacity.org
 - LAPD Senior Lead Officer Tracey Fields: 33844@lapd.lacity.org
 - Catherine.Landers@lacity.org
 - Alice.Roth@lacity.org

Problem Party Houses also make money for property owners as locations for film shoots. Report any film shoot activity at known party houses to LAPD, follow up with an email to:

- Jacquelyn.Lawson@lacity.org
- Senior Lead Officer Tracey Fields: 33844@lapd.lacity.org
- Officer Garbriel Martin of the LAPD Film Unit: 36993@lapd.lacity.org

Hi Daisy,

I would be happy to meet with you and am available most evenings; however, we can also schedule the meeting in the afternoon at the Hollywood LAPD Community Room and that way LAPD, CD4, the related city agencies, LADOT, LADBS, etc., can attend as well. Also, many of the reported party houses in the Hollywood Knoll are in the North Hollywood Division and will be handled by my counterpart in North Hollywood, Neighborhood Prosecutor Diego Edber, so he should be included at any meeting involving the Hollywood Knoll community including party houses. I am also copying the City Attorney Community Resource Specialists, Mayra Ceballo and Maria Landry, who also assist on and work with LAPD, CD4 on any community issues in both Hollywood and North Hollywood Divisions. To that end, Maria and Mayra will coordinate the meeting with you.

I look forward to meeting with the Hollywood Knoll community as soon as possible.
